

Marks & Spencer - Launceston Unit Spray Project

The client needed a large space coating quickly, our IPAF licenced, fully insured operators used a combination of access platforms and airless spray equipment to hand the project over on time. This was to the delight of the main client as previous trades were behind schedule but our experience enabled us to make up lost time and put the client back on their original time frame.

